NEWS FORECAST OF THE COMING WEEK

Florida State Republican Convention Meets—To Be Tried for Death of Walker.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Feb. 1.—The first of the state conventions to name delegates to the republican national convention will be held the coming week, when the republicans of Florida will meet in St. Augustine. More than ordinary interest attaches to the gathering because of the reported intention of the republican negroes to capture the convention in the interest of Senator Forsaker's candidacy. If the effort of the negroes fails the convention will be controlled by the federal officeholders, and as a consequence it is expected the Florida delegates will go to Chicago instructed for Secretary Taft.

The trial of William R. Mason and Joseph Vandewerpe charged with being the slayers of Secret Service Agent Joseph Walker, is scheduled to begin at Durango, Colo., next Friday. At the time of his death Walker was engaged in gathering evidence against the perpetrators of alleged land frauds in Colorado and his murder attracted widespread attention.

An important educational conference will be held at the University of Illinois Tuesday and Wednesday to discuss the relations of graduate schools of American universities to the preparation of teachers for high schools, colleges and universities, and the preparation for practical professions.

At Tampa, Fla., a conference of delegates representing the states of the south will assemble Wednesday to discuss the immigration problem and the best means for inducing the movement of desirable European settlers to the south.

From present indications it will not be a week of very great activity among the presidential possibilities, so far as their appearance in public goes. With the exception of William J. Bryan, none of them has so far accepted invitations for public addresses during the week. Mr. Bryan will remain in the east and will be heard during the week at several points in New Jersey and New York.

When Justice Dowling reached his court room this morning at 11:35 there was no word awaiting him that the Thaw jury had reached a verdict. The justice announced he would not send for the jury until he received some definite word from them.

A short time afterwards the jury came in and amid the most profound quiet announced that they had reached a verdict finding that Harry Thaw was not guilty of killing White but was insane.

Justice Dowling immediately committed Thaw to the Matteawan asylum for criminal insane and ordered him taken there until he can convince the lunacy commission that he is sane.

Justice Dowling said he deemed Thaw's discharge would be dangerous to the public safety.

Attorney Littleton, Thaw's attorney, immediately filed an exception to Justice Dowling's decision of committing Thaw to an asylum.

Justice Dowling then delayed the execution of the order committing Thaw to the asylum until three p. m., so that counsel can confer as to whether or not a writ of habeas corpus can be sued out to have his sanity tested by a commission.

When the news of the verdict was communicated to Mrs. Wm. Thaw, the prisoner's mother, she said, "Thank God, my son is saved. I am perfectly satisfied."

The decision of Justice Dowling to send Thaw to Matteawan asylum has been upheld and the prisoner will leave on the 1:40 train this afternoon.

CHINESE CELEBRATE NEW YEAR'S DAY

Chinese Speed the Old and Welcome the New Year with Fireworks and Firecrackers.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Feb. 1.—Chinatown was aglow last night in celebration of the advent of the new Chinese year. That crowded section of the lower East Side bounded by the Bowery, Mott and Pell streets was brilliant with light from end to end. At midnight the glow developed to a glare of dazzling brilliance and the noise and din began. Long before midnight great strings of firecrackers were draped before the Chinese restaurants and dwellings. When midnight came they were lighted, and the crashes galloped like a roar of battle. There was also a great pyrotechnic display of other explosive things. The celebration will, in fact, be carried on for a fortnight, including social calls, services at the joss-houses, dinners and theatrical performances.

WATCH GROUND HOG ON FEBRUARY 2ND

Weatherman Can Take a Vacation Tomorrow for Groundhog Will Take His Place.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Feb. 1.—There won't be any need for a weather bureau tomorrow, for it will be "groundhog day." According to the ancient superstition, exploded a thousand times by actual facts, but still cherished by the public, if the groundhog sees his shadow when he issues from his hole at noon on Candlemas day (Feb. 2), he will crawl in again and prepare for six weeks more of winter. If, on the other hand, he fails to see his shadow, he will remain out and make preparations for the coming of the spring, thus indicating that the most severe part of winter is past and that milder weather is near at hand.

TOBACCO MEN TO MEET HERE SOON

WILL HAVE TWO DAYS' SESSION THIS MONTH.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Janesville, Feb. 1.—The Wisconsin Tobacco Growers' and Dealers' Association, (the State Department of Farmers' Institute and the Wisconsin Association) will hold a two days' joint convention here, the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth of this month.

Through the influence of Secretary A. L. Fisher of the Wisconsin Tobacco Growers' and Dealers' Association, the State Department of Farmers' Institute and the Wisconsin Association will hold a two days' joint convention here, the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth of this month.

This convention will bring from a thousand to fifteen hundred farmers and tobacco-men to the city during those two days and it will be of importance to the merchants and business-men of the city that these men should get a good impression of Janesville. In Madison where the last five meetings of the tobacco association have been held the Hotel Mop's Association contribute $150 toward the expenses of the convention.

Meeting Called.
Believing that such a convention will be of great benefit to Janesville a call has been issued for a meeting to be held at the Gas company's office at seven-thirty on next Tuesday evening. Mayor Hedges will preside and all citizens who are interested in having this convention are asked to attend. The purpose of the meeting will be to raise a hundred dollars to defray the cost of hiring Assembly hall for the convention and other necessary expenses. Several prominent citizens have stated that in their opinion such a convention would be of great benefit to the city.

First Convention Here.
This is the first convention of the Tobacco Association to be held in Janesville and the first joint convention of the Farmers' Institute and the tobacco men. The Hon. George W. Miller of Morrisville, member of the board of directors of the State Agricultural Society, will preside at the convention. Other prominent tobacco men from this state and other states will speak, and several of the professors from the agricultural school of the university will also give addresses. These meetings are educational in their aim. All the speeches and papers are printed, bound and sent out amongst the farmers of the state and furnish about the only tobacco literature obtainable. In addition to the papers there will be a tobacco exhibit and $150 will be distributed in prizes.

Pragmatic Officers.
John M. Estes of Shafter is president of the Tobacco Association. Mayor Hedges is vice-president, A. L. Fisher is secretary, and F. W. Coon of Edgerton is the treasurer. Secretary Fisher will send out programs and literature concerning the convention to his one hundred township secretaries in the state and a large attendance will be secured. Ex-Governor Howard will be present. C. H. Everett, editor of the Wisconsin Agriculturalist, and H. H. Miller, publisher, as well as many other prominent men in the tobacco and agricultural world.

In view of the benefits derived from such a gathering it is hoped that no difficulty will be experienced in raising the necessary $100.

BOSTON A. A. HOLDS BIG INDOOR MEET

Nineteenth Annual Meet of the Boston Athletic Association Takes Place Tonight.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Boston, Mass., Feb. 1.—With all the important features of a championship competition scheduled, and an entry list comprising many of the leading college and club athletes in the east, the nineteenth annual indoor games of the Boston Athletic Association in Mechanics' building tonight promises to be the most eventful athletic affair held in this city for many years.

Team racing will be a conspicuous part of the program. These races will bring together Harvard and Yale, Princeton and Cornell. Dartmouth and the University of Pennsylvania, and a number of other big colleges and universities.

Much interest is manifested in the scheduled race between Melvin Shepard of the Irish-American A. C. of New York and Guy Haskins of the University of Pennsylvania. Shepard has won the national half-mile championship for the past three years and the Canadian champion for the last two years. Haskins is a former half-mile champion and this year he won the national cross-country championship. Through this pair of fleet runners met in two special races at Philadelphia recently, there remains a doubt in the minds of the followers of the sport as to who is the speedier.

He went into the room and found Guerin on the floor with the revolver in his hand. He declared Mrs. McDonald several times exclaimed, "He has shot himself."

SENATOR PLATT WILL BE LEFT OUT OF BIG FOUR

For First Time In Twenty Years Platt Will Not Be One Of Those Sent To Chicago Convention.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Feb. 1.—The annual dinner of the "Brethren of the Amen Corner" at the Fifth Avenue hotel tonight, to be attended by governors, United States senators, and big and little democratic and republican bosses, cannot fail to recall to the minds of many of those present the political eclipse of one of the founders and leading spirits of the "Amen Brethren"—Senator Thomas C. Platt.

For the first time in twenty years Senator Platt is not to be included among the "Big Four" that will be sent from this state to the Chicago convention. This is the word that has gone forth from those who are now in recognized control of the state organization. It is also probable that Senator Depew will be left "outside the brentworks." Senator Depew, like Senator Platt, is a national convention veteran, having been a delegate to every republican national convention since 1888.

Senator Platt's bodily infirmities and his well known intention to retire from office at the expiration of his term a year hence make it a comparatively easy matter to ignore him in making up the list of delegates-at-large. It is more of a problem, however, to skip Senator Depew. He still has four years to serve as senator and is in good health. It is understood that he will go to the convention as a district delegate.

The passing over of Senators Platt and Depew in making up the "Big Four" is not without precedent. In New York politics, twenty years ago Warner Miller and Frank H. Cook were familiar figures at republican national conventions and were always among the delegates-at-large.

After Senator Platt became the dominant force in the state organization Miller and H. Cook were not prominent factors again. Ex-Senator Miller in once more potential in his congressional district, and it would not surprise his friends if he were sent this year as a district delegate to the Chicago convention.

Some time ago it was thought most likely that the four delegates-at-large from New York would be Secretary Root, Secretary Cortelyou, ex-Governor Black and Chairman Woodhull of the state committee. But later developments have changed the plans of the organization leaders. The certainty that Hughes sentiment will dominate the state convention renders it probable that the names of Secretary Root and Secretary Cortelyou will be dropped from the slate. Neither of these cabinet officers is a recognized Hughes man, so that it is likely that their names will go down and in their places will go up President Schuman of Cornell university and former Mayor Seth Low.

Ex-Governor Black is not anxious to re-enter politics, but would probably accept a place among the delegates-at-large if the honor were tendered him. Both Secretaries Root and Cortelyou can go as district delegates if they so desire. Secretary Root was a district delegate four years ago and temporary chairman of the convention. Ex-Governor Odell was one of the four delegates-at-large in 1900 and in 1904, and unquestionably would be elected one of the "Big Four" this year if his friends were in control of the state organization. So it is he will most likely go to Chicago as a district delegate.

NARROW ESCAPE OF A RAILWAY AGENT

Locked Into a Refrigerator Car the Man Fights for Liberty with a Big Keg.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Sparta, Wis., Feb. 1.—Roy Clarke, freight agent for the C. & N. W. railroad at Sparta, jumped into a refrigerator car in the freight yards to see about the heaters and while there the wind blew the heavy double door shut with such force that the big iron fasteners were shot into place and Clarke found himself a prisoner. Realizing that to remain in the car any length of time meant certain death he attempted to cut a hole through the door with his pocket-knife, but found that the big iron bolts were too thick. He finally made use of a beer keg with which he battered the door, gaining his freedom in an hour and a half, being well high exhausted.

GENERAL WOOD WILL LEAVE PHILIPPINES

Retires Today and Will Spend Several Months in Europe Taking a Needed Rest.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Feb. 1.—Army circles are much interested in the future of Major General Leonard Wood, who has fixed upon this date for the expiration of his service in command of the Philippine division. He is not expected to return to the United States for some time, however, as he intends to spend several months in Europe on leave of absence for purposes of rest and recreation before resuming active duty.

He will probably not reach this country until fall and by that time the military situation may be considerably changed. It is understood that he can succeed General Frederick D. Grant in command of the Department of the East if he wants it. On the other hand, he may be ordered to Washington to assume the office and duties of chief of staff as the relief of Gen. J. Franklin Bell.

General Bell was appointed the office of chief of staff, which is regarded as the most important office in the army, was invariably filled by the officer of highest rank. Lieut. Gen. Young, Chief of Staff and Bates held that office in succession, and the appointment of Gen. Bell followed the request of Lieut. Gen. Henry C. Corbin to be assigned to the command of the southwestern division at St. Louis. Instead of to the office of chief of staff, to which his rank naturally entitled him, Gen. Arthur MacArthur succeeded Gen. Corbin as lieutenant general, but as his rank was not on the best of terms with Secretary Taft, it was deemed best to make no change in the office of chief of staff for his benefit. No such reasons would apply, however, to the case of Gen. Wood, who, in addition to becoming the senior officer of the army in active service, is a warm personal friend of both the President and the secretary of war.

It is pointed out by several army officers that the appointment of Gen. Wood as chief of staff would effectively remedy the present anomalous condition of affairs at the War Department, due to the fact that Major General Fred C. Ainsworth, the present adjutant general of the army, is senior to the present chief of staff, and consequently is not called upon to perform the ordinary routine duties of his office, except in special cases, where he takes his orders direct from the President, the secretary of war or the assistant secretary of war.

Harriman, Jacob F. Schiff, Otto H. Kahn, James Stillman, Henry H. Rogers, Henry C. Frick and William A. Clark are defendants. $10,000 LAWSUIT AGAINST SUGAR CO.

Commenced by Father of Rudolph Buerger, Who Was Killed by Explosion of Evaporator Sept. 20.
August Buerger, father of the late Rudolph Buerger and administrator of his estate, has commenced a $10,- 000 damage action against the Rock County Sugar Co. The papers were served yesterday. Rudolph Buerger, 23 will be remembered, was instantly killed on the morning of September 20 by the mysterious and terrible explosion of the second one, counting from the westward, of the battery of four large evaporators fronting on the second story landing of the main building. He and his companion, August G. Buerger, were engaged in the work of adjusting the glass tubing for a juice-indicator and one of them is supposed to have lighted a match
just before the big iron-plated drum blew up. The management could offer no explanation of the possible presence there of gas, beyond the statement that the evaporator had been cleaned about an hour before with a weak solution of muriatic acid and water. One theory advanced by a chemist was that hydrogen was liberated by the combination of the solution and the iron plates, but it was difficult to believe that the volumes could have been sufficient to cause an explosion which hurled the shattered iron plates twenty or thirty feet. It is understood that the plaintiff expects to show that some form of sodium salts and other chemicals were also employed in the cleaning process. August Buerger, after many weeks in the hospital, recovered from the terrible injuries sustained.
The case was probably not commenced in time to be tried at the February term of court.

WILL BUY CUTTINGS
IN FRANCE FOR PARK

Janesville Park and Pleasure Drive Association to Order Ten Thousand Cuttings.

At a meeting of the directors of the Janesville Park and Pleasure Drive association held yesterday afternoon President Dwight was instructed to place an order for ten thousand cuttings of hardy shrubs to be imported from France for use in the proposed nursery of the association on the property loaned for that purpose by Senator Whitehead. Dr.
Dwight explained that these cuttings were shipped to this country in February and would be here in time for planting this spring. It was also decided to plant some two hundred hardy plants this next fall by seeds so that they would be ready in nineteen days for use in the park.
Dr. Dwight was also empowered to employ Mr. Shumers, one of the best landscape architects in the country to come to Janesville and give the association a working plan for the beautiful and decoration of the proposed park.

MUSCATINE BUTTON
FACTORY COMING?

Traveling Man Says Labor Conditions
Will Compel Move and That Janesville is to be New Location.

According to a traveling man who was in the city this afternoon a pearl button factory is soon to remove from Muscatine, Ia., to Janesville. He said he was in Muscatine recently and that a Mr. Zebler, proprietor of the plant, planned there, among other things,
to move and that he expected to locate in Janesville.

When Mr. Roestling, formerly a proprietor of the Janesville Pearl Button factory, was seen today he said he had heard nothing of the move and seemed surprised at the news. The factory belonging to the firm of which he was a member was sold to the Automatic Button company of Muscatine, a concern headed by Henry Umland. It was thought then that the purchase was for the purpose of closing out the local factory to suppress competition. Mr. Roestling has never heard of Mr. Zebler and unless he is a successful competitor of the Automatic company it would seem that little credence could be given the report.

CHEESEMAKERS TAKE
IN THE DAIRYMEN

Southern Wisconsin Cheesemakers
Change Name So as to Include
Dairymen—Membership Increased.

The membership of the Southern Wisconsin Cheesemakers' association was increased from 150 to 250 as a result of the convention which came to a close yesterday afternoon. The name of the organization was changed to include the dairymen, who are expected to unite with the association.
Officers were elected as follows:

President—S. J. Stauffer, Monroe.

Vice President—Jacob Karlen, Jr., Monroe.

Secretary—Henry Elmer, Monroe.

Treasurer—Jacob Rogez, Jr., Monroe.

Directors—A. C. Truesdel, John
Weil and Joshua Klay.

The cheese prizes were awarded
as follows:

Limburger—First, Gottfried Mel-
man, Monroe, sec. 97.

Swiss—First, Jacob Mueller, Jordan, sec. 98; second, Christ Blaser, Brooklyn, sec. 98; John Gahl, Monticello,
sec. 93.

Block—First, Otto Mueller, South
Wayne, sec. 98; second, Peter Ackerly, Brownstown, sec. 97.

Rich—First, Christ Blaser, Brooklyn, sec. 98.

The judges were E. W. Gallo, Jacob Karlen, Sr., and Christ Roth.

Peter Zumbach, traveling cheese inspector of the southern Wisconsin district, addressed the association on factory conditions, discussing the improvements that have been made in recent years as well as the improvements that are needed. He said that while new factories are being built ample provision is not made for the curing of the cheese, as the curing rooms are too small when the market is such that the cheese is not curing readily. The movement of cheese is very slow at the present time and many cheeses are filled with cheese that is being held in the curing room.

Henry Elmer of Monroe township presented his views of the Swiss cas-ty, which he regarded as the best suited for the cheese industry of this particular section of the state. He contended that the Swiss was the model dairy cow in Switzerland and he reasoned that the Swiss was likewise the best here.

Theodore Warner, instructor, United States dairy instructor, who is engaged on experimental work for the government in the manufacture of Swiss cheese at Albert Lea, Minn., presented some rather remarkable points on Swiss cheese.

Swiss cheesemakers all consider that in order to make a good quality of Swiss cheese it is necessary to heat the milk in a copper kettle. Mr. Banoff stated that they were using vats with very satisfactory results. Milk for Swiss cheese is always made up here mornings and evenings and he told the convention this was unnecessary, that by cooling and giving the curd milk proper cure it could be held until morning to be made up with the morning's milk, saving the matter half the labor and long hours in the factory at night. Mr. Banoff is a native of Russia, where he made cheese and he also had the benefit of factory experience in Switzerland and elsewhere. His observations in the study of the making of Swiss cheese were of much interest to the association.

Prof. C. H. Benckendorf, professor of dairy husbandry in charge of the Wisconsin dairy school, explained the short course in German.

E. L. Stordahl, state dairy inspector of South Dakota, spoke on stable management. Remarks were made by H.
S. Bauer, deputy dairy and food commissioner and secretary of the Wisconsin Cheesemakers' association.

E. E. Hastings, professor of agricultural bacteriology, College of Agriculture, Madison, Cheese Factory inspector Fred J. Marty, and Henry Elmer of the wholesale cheese firm of Jno. C. Wenger & Co., were other speakers at the closing session.

MONROE FAMILY IS
POISONED BY GAS

Leak in Gas Main Causing Gas to Escape into the House is Cause of Sickness.

Monroe, Wis., Feb. 1.—An open joint in the service pipe connection with the gas mains in the street in front of the home of A. P. Rote has been the cause of sickness from gas poisoning in the family of Mr. Rote.
The shutting off of the gas back of the meter failed to improve conditions and the gas was ordered shut off out in the street. Diggers struck a flat stone as the main was reached and the spark ignited gas that was escaping from the separation of a 3-inch connection. The main had contracted because of the cold weather.
It was discovered that the escaping gas followed the service pipe to the cement curb and found an outlet in the porous filling of the cen-ment work, taking a course under the approach and walk to the steps of the house, where it was confined under the frozen surface of the ground and from there went through the walls and cement floor into the cellar to sear through the house.
Early fainting attacks occurred in the house during the week and for two years Mrs. Rote had suffered from headaches and weakness, from regarded as symptoms of gas poisoning. The name of the Rote home now into each other, all having large openings and the house has a system of chimney ventilation, and in most any other home not so well arranged as to air space and circulation the consequences would surely have been much more serious.

Telephone toll lines and farm lines connecting with the local office were out of service for an hour and one-half yesterday because of a severe electrical storm that extended over southwestern Wisconsin.

Shubert, northwestern Illinois and western Iowa.

The disturbance was so unusual that it had all the trouble shooters of the Bell company gathering.

Halford Erickson, member of the Wisconsin railroad commission, was in the city yesterday gathering information relative to freight rates on cheese for interstate shipment, making preparations for a hearing that will be held at Madison before a member of the interstate commerce commission on complaint filed by the Wisconsin commission.

The great
bulk of the cheese made in this section is shipped either to or through Chicago and in consequence the item of freight is important.

Mrs. F. P. West was at Broadhead
yesterday.

Cards were received here today announcing the marriage of Miss Harriet Ross and Mr. Ernest M. Whitter at Redfield, S. D. Mr. Whitter graduated from the Monroe high school and was formerly a resident of Mon-ticele.

R. B. Gifford of this city, who is at Haugen, Wis., reports that the thermometer registered 21 below zero
there Wednesday morning.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT

"Just stand aside and watch yourself go by."

Think of yourself as "he," instead of "I."

Note, closely as in other men you note.

The lanknecked trousers and the ready coat.

Pick flaws; find fault; forget the man in you.

And strive to make your estimate ring true.

Confront yourself and look you in the eye.

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

"Interpret all your motives just as though you looked on one whose aims you did not know."

Let undigested contempt surge through you when you see you shrink, O commonest of men!

Dispel your cowardice; condemn whatever

You note of falsehood in you anywhere.

Defend not one defect that shames your eye.

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

"And then, with eyes unrolled to what you loathe—

To stare with sweet charity you'd clothe—

Back to your self-washed tenement you'll go

With tolerance for all who dwell below.

The faults of others then will dwindle and shrink.

Love's chain grow stronger by one mighty link—

When you, with 'he,' as substitute for 'I,'

Have stood aside and watched yourself go by."

This common sense advice is from the pen of Strickland W. Gilliam, in Success Magazine. It rings so true, and fits so snug to all of us, that it merits attention.

The world is long on criticism, and short on charity because the microscope of perfection infects humanity in large degree.

We abrogate to ourselves all the virtues, and load up the other fellow with all the vices, and then wonder how so many people keep out of jail.

There is a wonderful difference between conceit and confidence. Every man, and especially every young man, owes it to himself to have a good opinion of himself.

If he would win, in the early stages of the race, he must be sure of his ability, and with absolute confidence say "I can," and not "I'll try."

The business world has neither the time nor patience to experiment with people who "try," and the industrial world is even more critical.

The mechanic who applies for work, in any calling, knows that he is master of the situation, and can make good, if given the opportunity.

The great multitude of passengers, who throng the railways, which thread the country like a spider's web, never give a thought to the man in the cab, for they know that he is an expert engineer, not trying to perform his work, but performing it every hour as the miles slip by.

The busy hum of machinery, in shop and factory, tells the story of ability, and the army of workmen employed represent men who are doing things, and faithfully performing their mission in life.

This is confidence, and as far removed from conceit as is truth from falsehood. Conceit is inherited, but self-confidence is developed through work and experience.

The small boy in the home delights in feats that his child could perform, but which to his small conceited brain are beyond the range of ordinary ability.

If he is the only child in the household, the father and mother usually encourage his hallucinations by telling the neighbors, in the boy's presence, how smart Johnnie is, and John goes out into life to have the corners removed by rough and tumble experience.

It is a misfortune to any child to grow up in a home alone. Better adopt a brother or sister than to turn a boy or girl loose from such narrow environments.

The mother love is large enough to cover the brood in any home, and too large to be lavished on a single child with profit to the child, unless rare judgment is exercised, and this is frequently lacking.

The atmosphere of these homes is likely to be of the bathhouse variety, and in sharp contrast to the vigorous and stormy elements which must be encountered before the journey is well in hand.

But what of the critics, the people who find so much to condemn, and so little to commend? Did you ever sit in the corner at an afternoon club, and hear the neighborhood dissected, and did you notice that almost every body took a whack at somebody?

Have you ever noticed that the first shadow of suspicion blighted the fair reputation of some innocent girl, as the result of idle gossip, and that not infrequently the gossipier had a record not entirely blameless?

Have you ever tried to put yourself in place of the man who under the strain of great temptation, fell a victim to dishonor, and did the thought ever occur to you that under similar circumstances, you might have been the victim?

It is fortunate for many of us that we have never been obliged to assume large responsibilities, or that we have never been called upon to act as cashier for any funds but our own, and it is equally fortunate that the average citizen is not a politician, and has no desire to hold public office.

The notion prevails, to large extent, that every man in public life, whether of high or low degree, is a grifter, and this spirit of suspicion has been fostered and encouraged, until the belief is also prevalent that men of wealth generally are dishonest.

The most of us never had a chance to do any grafting, and, therefore, will never know how expert we might have become under favorable circumstances. Neither have we been burdened with much wealth, and so continue to be honest.

But this wholesale charge of graft and dishonesty is a libel on the nation, and is as false as it is common. Some people believe, and are free to assert, that every man has his price, and that virtue is a matter of barter and sale. But this class of people represent nothing. They can be bought in job lots at mallorder prices, and are about as valuable as the goods handled by this class of houses.

The men who serve us in official life, and the men who, through persistent work and ability, have come to the front as financiers, were, most of them, average boys of the last generation.

They combined with earnest honesty, which is common to the race, a commendable ambition and singleness of purpose to work out a career on certain well-defined lines, and did it.

Everybody has a grievance against John D. Rockefeller, but nobody can define it except the handful of men who were unable to compete with him, and they are entitled to about as much consideration as the merchant who retires from the field because overshadowed by heavy competition.

The most of us would be Rockefeller if we could, and it isn't a matter of principle that keeps us out of the mall-order business.

What we need to cultivate as a people is a broader charity. You meet a man on the street whom you have not seen for twenty years. His hair is white and the traces of time mark his features.

You go home and say to your wife, "I met Jones today, and was surprised to see how old he looked." Then you are reminded to look in the glass and discover that Jones has a hot competitor on the downward slope.

Thus it is with many things, and charity is needed before judgment be passed. Perfection is a rare jewel and never possessed by people who think they own it.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The President's message, sent to congress yesterday, is a disappointment to many people who had hoped that the lessons of the past three months had made some impression on him, but the tone of the message is more radical than ever, and the spirit which prompted it seems thickened with stupidity and unbecoming to the high office of chief executive.

The state paper is devoted largely to a defense of himself, and to criticizing the men and corporations who have had the temerity to defend themselves against attack.

The President appears to have overlooked the fact that the court of public opinion is by far the largest and most important tribunal in the land. He has enjoyed the approval of this court, in large degree, and to such an extent that the popular verdict has been, "The President can do no wrong."

But public sentiment has changed on some questions, and while there is no disposition to condemn wrong doing, or block the progress of reform, there is a disposition to be fair and conservative, by laying aside the "big stick" and give the nation a breathing spell.

The Standard Oil company has sought through paid publicity to explain to the people its position in the light now being made against the company. Does anybody save the President's question the right to do so?

The company recognizes the fact that its case is before the court of public opinion, and that this court is now largely under the influence of ignorance and prejudice. To dispel this ignorance, and modify this prejudice, the company appeals, as it has a perfect right to do.

Ex-Senator Spooner was once called to the White House in consultation. After listening to the case, he said to the President, "You have plenty of able attorneys in your cabinet and law department, why don't you consult them?" The reply in substance was, "I have consulted them, but they don't agree with me."

That explains a good many things. It is to be regretted that reform has not struck the White House to the extent of less radical talk, and more conservative action. The country is ready to resume business, and should be given a chance.

LAKE RATES TO BE ADVANCED.

Passenger Rates Will Be Higher in Coming Season.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 1.—Following a meeting of passenger steamboat men at Niagara last week it has been announced that steamboat passenger rates to the upper lakes will be advanced at the opening of the coming season. The Detroit and Cleveland Navigation company and the Northern Steamship company will increase the fare from Detroit and Lake Erie ports to Mackinac 50 cents each way. The Anchor line rates to Duluth will be advanced ten per cent. This year towels and berths will be charged separately from transportation fare on nearly all the lines.

Big Fire in Bluefield, W. Va.

Bluefield, W. Va., Feb. 1.—A disastrous fire broke out in the Christian building on Pulaski street Friday and spread rapidly. On account of a delay in turning in an alarm the department did not arrive until the structure was in flames and had spread to adjoining buildings. The damage will exceed $150,000. Eight business houses, the railroad Y. M. C. A. building and three residences were destroyed by the fire.

Two Brothers Commit Suicide.

Litchfield, Ill., Feb. 1.—Shooting themselves with the same revolver, James and Charles Lipky, brothers, aged 34 and 40 years respectively, committed suicide late Friday at Raymond, this county. The two men were prominent in business in Raymond and no cause has been assigned for their act.

Three Boys Are Drowned.

Nyaack, N. Y., Feb. 1.—While walking on the thin ice which had formed in the Hudson off this place Friday, Evans Steele, aged 21; Hans Kraft, 12, and Harold Dixon, 11, broke through and were drowned. The bodies were recovered.

BASKETBALL TEAMS LOST AT BRODHEAD

Both Boys and Girls Were Defeated by Close Scores in Contests There Last Evening.

At Brodhead last evening, the Janesville High school boys' basketball team was defeated 22 to 28 and the girls' team was likewise vanquished by a score of 12 to 10. The Brodhead players took the lead early in both contests, the score for the boys standing 17 to 12 in favor of Brodhead and the score for the girls, 8 to 7, at the end of the first half. The local boys did not play in their usual form. Frank Robertson, the youngest member of the five and a this year's recruit, played the star game for the locals. A reception and good time followed with a dance, and the members of the Janesville delegation spent the night at the homes of friends in that city, returning to Janesville this morning.

William and Miss Abbie Terry of the faculty accompanied the teams. The lineup was as follows:

JANESVILLE. Brodhead, Criswell, Conter, Skinner, Cunningham, Forward, Leaver, Richards, Forward, Baxter, P. Robertson, Guard, Taylor, Denison, Guard, Lake.

NOISE OF A SHOT BROKE NIGHT'S CALM

Officer Mason Was Trying to Stop Albert Dorsey But Edward Kramer Believed Assassins Were After Him.

It will be rather difficult to convince Edward Kramer, age 20, an employee of the Janesville Carriage Co., that he was not fired upon by assassins while on the way to his home on Melkey boulevard at 1:20 this morning. He was walking southward on Jackson street, when, as he neared the Pleasant street intersection, he was greeted by two strangers standing in the shadows of the Baptist church. They demanded, "Where are you going?" In what seemed to him threatening tone, he hurried on and had gotten half a block away when revolver shots rang out upon the still night, or something to that effect. With doubled speed he darted into the doorway of Dr. M. A. Cunningham's residence at the corner of Jackson and Center streets and the physician, answering his call, permitted him to enter and after listening to his story sent for the police. Officer Thomas Morrissey responded and Mr. Kramer was taken the rest of the way home in a hack.

The bullets which Mr. Kramer thinks he heard whistling close to his ears were not, however, sent on any destructive mission. They, or rather it, was fired up in the air by Officer William Mason in an effort to stop Albert Dorsey whom he had been pursuing from South Main, over the Court street bridge, and westward on Pleasant street. Dorsey is reported to be the most fleet-footed non-professional runner in this region. Officer Mason followed him nearly to Spring Brook but failed to get even a piece of his coat-tail.

Dorsey was released two weeks ago from the state's prison at Winnebago, where he completed a sentence for stealing doughnuts and pie from the Denison & Lane bakery. He was skulking about the doorway of one of the Hostwick stores when caught by Officer Mason. The moment he conceived himself that he had not escaped the glance of the officer he started out of the doorway on a dead-run. This peculiar move was quickly emulated by the maiden of the law and he fired a single shot in the hope of frightening the youth into heading his command to halt.

TEACHERS OF ROCK COUNTY IN SESSION

Two Hundred of Them Are Attending the Annual Meeting at High School Today.

About two hundred of the 380 teachers of Rock county assembled at the high school this morning for the annual meeting. When the inclement weather was taken into consideration, the showing for this, the largest of any county meetings held in the state, was considered a remarkably good one. Whitewater, Monroe, Rockford, and other neighboring cities outside of the county were represented but not by as large delegations as might have been expected, could Old Dorsey's interference have been forestalled.

A. H. Shultz of Evansville, the president; Miss Martha Carson of the same city, secretary; Miss Annie Dugan of Beloit, treasurer; and County Superintendents Charles H. Henningway and O. D. Antisdel, City Supt. E. E. Converse of Beloit, and City Supt. H. C. Baell of Janesville, members of the executive committee ex-officio, were among the officers of the association present when the session was called to order in the main room at half-past nine o'clock. Principal Emil Rodin of Edgerton spoke on "Free Texts"; Supt. E. J. Shives of Monroe on "The Four Years—To What Purpose?"; Prof. E. C. Elliot of the University of Wisconsin on "Not Nourished in the Bond"; and Principal E. E. Graft of Rockford on "Correction." The session was closed with a fine selection by the Girls' chorus of the Janesville High school, given under the direction of Mrs. George Hyde, a number by the High school orchestra, and an address on "The Common Schools, Then and Now," by President Albert Salisbury of the Whitewater Normal.

Special Shirt Waist Course

Two Popular Courses - - $12.00

The Special Shirt Waist Course Includes Cutting, Designing and Making

It gives instruction in the proper method of taking measures; the theory and use of Snow's Success System of Garment Cutting, teaching the cutting of shirt waists, dressing sleeves, sleeves of all kinds, and the art of designing.

Designing takes up the study of style from the artistic standpoint and teaches a class of work now for the first time reduced to a scientific basis and taught in a practical manner. The pupil is here trained to design or reproduce any pictured effect by exact measurement and in a true proportion to the form. The principles of this art have been so thoroughly developed and the methods so clearly illustrated that anyone can easily master the whole subject and after reasonable application can accurately reproduce any style seen, imagined or illustrated.

This Course entitles you to make one shirtwaist in the class-room under the directions of the instructors. After the course is learned you are entitled to come to the class-room and make as many shirt waists as you wish for an additional charge of $1.50 per week.

The Cost of having a shirt waist made is $1.50 to $5.00. You have to wait the dressmaker's convenience and you don't always get it as you want it. By making 5 or 6 waists in the class-room you save the cost of the course and have learned an art that will help you for a life-time. You will have gained a knowledge worthy to be handed down to your children.

The Snow College offers Janesville its first real system of dressmaking. It's the only successful system in the United States taught outside of the largest cities and the probabilities are that you will never have another chance to learn dressmaking as a science.

Snow's College is not a permanent institution here. It is located in Janesville for this season only and if you miss this opportunity it may never come again.

We have over a hundred satisfied patrons in Janesville. Call at the class-rooms and see the work being done—talk with the students, and satisfy yourself as to its merits.

If you cannot call now drop us a postal for our booklet.

NOLAN CANDIDATE FOR NOMINATION

WILL SEEK THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL HONORS.

IS ROCK COUNTY'S CHOICE

Hon. Pliny Norcross and Senator John M. Whitehead Refuse to be Considered.

Matters politically in the coming congressional contest for nomination took definite form this morning with the formal announcement of Thos. S. Nolan that he would become a candidate. As an eleventh hour aspirant.

T. S. NOLAN

Two years ago Mr. Nolan became the logical choice of the republicans of Rock county for the thirteenth congressional district and the formal announcement that he will make the race will be received with a general accord of popular sentiment at this time.

Thos. Pliny Norcross has wired the Gazette from Thomaston, Georgia, where he is spending the winter that he is not a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress to succeed Henry Allen Cooper, of Racine, the present congressman.

Mr. Norcross' decision comes after mature deliberation and frequent requests from friends in Green, Washington, Rock and Lafayette counties that he permit his name to be used in this connection.

Senator Whitehead who has also been mentioned for the nomination has officially stated he would not permit his name to be used in this connection, refusing utterly to consider the question, thus eliminating two of the three men thus far mentioned as possible opponents of Mr. Cooper at the republican primaries next September.

Mr. Thos. S. Nolan, the third aspirant for the nomination from this county, this morning formally announced his candidacy in view of the withdrawal of both Mr. Norcross and Mr. Whitehead's name and said relative to the matter:

"The fact that Mr. Norcross was known to be considering the advisability of becoming a candidate has kept me from making any definite announcement of my candidacy until today. The telegram received from Mr. Norcross announcing his withdrawal as a candidate for congress places a different phase on the matter and I now feel free to act."

"At the request of friends throughout the district, I became an eleventh hour candidate two years ago and these same friends have been urging me to again take up the race and permit my name to be used in this connection. Conditions which existed two years ago do not exist today and I feel that it is due my friends to announce my candidacy."

"You may state that I am a candidate for the nomination for congress to succeed Mr. Cooper."

A. H. SHELDON WAS CALLED BY DEATH

For Years Was One of Janesville's Prominent and Leading Citizens.

After many months of feebleness, death came to the relief of A. H. Sheldon, at 7 o'clock this morning. Mr. Sheldon was born at New York Mills, New York, April 29, 1837. He was married to Lucy A. Sherwood in 1862, and came west the same year, locating in Madison, Wisconsin, where he engaged in the agricultural business with his brother, S. L. Sheldon.

In 1870 he came to Janesville as secretary of the old Harris works, now the Janesville Machine company. Three years later he formed a partnership with the late G. M. Hinchett, which continued until the death of the latter in 1892. The firm of Hinchett & Sheldon was succeeded by A. H. Sheldon & company, later known as the Sheldon Hardware company.

Mr. Sheldon was one of the incorporators of the Merchants & Mechanics' Savings bank and for many years was vice president of the institution. He is the last of the original board of directors.

A life-long and enthusiastic republican, he was active in loyally supporting the party, and while never seeking public office, was frequently honored by position of trust and responsibility. A remnant of the old conservatism which is rapidly passing on, he represented conservatism, and his judgment was sound on questions of party policy.

He was a member of the Congregational church, and for many years was an active worker. A man of genial disposition and kindly heart, he enjoyed the respect and confidence of all who knew him, while the friends who were close to him appreciated his many sterling qualities of mind and heart.

For the past five years he had been a patient sufferer, yet but few realized his condition, as he refused to give up active work until compelled to do so.

TAKE POSSESSION OF PART OF BUILDING

Lewis Knitting Company Forced to Have More Room by Increase of Business.

The Lewis Knitting Co. will take possession during the coming week of two floors of the Hostwick building at Court and Park streets. The business of the company has made a large increase during recent years. Notwithstanding the fact that the Main street building has been extended to Park street and other additions to floor space have been made, the company has been obliged for several seasons to rent and use at great inconvenience three or four storage rooms outside of its premises. Under the new arrangements the stock and materials carried in the several storage rooms will be combined in the Hostwick building. The office will also be moved into the new quarters, while the building on South Main street will be used for manufacturing only. Steps have been taken to leasing the balance of the treasury stock the company has on hand, thus increasing its paid up capital to $100,000, and putting it in shape to properly take care of the portion of business in its lines, which is looking for the return of prosperity to the country at large.

A JANESVILLE CASE

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Janesville. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such conclusive evidence.

Chas. W. Allen, of 126 Chatham St., Juncaville, Wis., says: "After my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills, I am ready to recommend them as a remedy that can be relied upon in kidney troubles and backache. I tried many different remedies for these complaints, but until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the Peoples' drug company I found little or no help. After a few days' use of Doan's Kidney Pills, the aches and other symptoms all passed and since I discontinued their use, have never returned."
